

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 AUGUST 2010

*Teach us to remember our days aright,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.*

- Psalm 90:12

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

Well, I had a wonderful retreat at Mount Angel Abbey, followed by vacation time in San Diego, Los Angeles, and Santa Barbara; and now I am happy to be home. There are still a few quiet weeks before the academic year starts, during which I hope to write a paper for publication on the liturgy.

During my days at mount Angel, I did some research on the liturgy in their rather large theological library. As many of you may already know, the Church has recently approved some changes to the Mass. We will be promulgating them nationwide in the near future. You might find it interesting to see them for yourselves; and they can be found on the Internet at the USCCB website (www.usccb.org).

Peace and blessings, Fr. William Dillard

OUR CCD PROGRAM NEEDS YOU!

The St. Vincent CCD Program is currently seeking parishioners to assist in teaching our wonderful CCD students about our Catholic Faith on Monday afternoons (3:30 to 4:30pm) beginning Monday, Sept. 13. No previous teaching experience is necessary, just a faith-filled heart and a willingness to share God's love! For more information, please contact Michelle Wakefield at 619.804.0102 or at mlw@dmwakelaw.com

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859) AUG 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."

USHER UPDATE!

Parish members active in the usher program met on July 24th. We still need more participants to help the lead ushers at each mass. Please consider attending our next meeting on August 7th at 2:00pm in the chapel. Your interest is crucial to the growth and success of this ministry at our church. Questions, call the parish office at 299.3880.

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

In these challenging economic times, Catholic Education is not inexpensive, but it is a worthwhile investment for a child. It is a gift that lasts a life time. Our school is privileged to partner parents in the awesome task of laying a solid foundation for a child's intellectual and spiritual development.

The administration and faculty is committed to providing a curriculum that encourages high academic achievement in an engaging and nurturing school environment. We strive to inspire cooperative and independent learning as we build in each child a lifelong joy of learning, self confidence & social responsibility.

Our school recently received the maximum six years accreditation from the Western Catholic Educational Association. We are accredited until 2016.

Sincere thanks to our faith community and loyal friends for support and encouragement.
